Polo Club Regulations

We very much hope that you will enjoy your day at Cowdray Park Polo Club, where accidents are very rare BUT polo is a dangerous sport.

Neither CPPC nor the Cowdray Estate can accept any responsibility for injuries to persons or property on this ground. The following safety rules must be observed: -

Please ensure that you always watch the movement of the ball during play and keep yourselves, friends and family out of the safety zone area.

Please ensure you supervise your children who will not be as diligent as you.

Dogs must be always kept on a lead.

All guest access to the pony lines, lorry parking areas and agricultural machinery is strictly forbidden.

Alcohol may only be consumed by those over the age of eighteen.

Private barbecues are not allowed.

Vehicles are admitted on condition that Cowdray Park Polo Club shall not be liable for damage to any vehicle, anything in or on or about any vehicle howsoever such a loss or damage may be caused.

Anyone who is judged to be putting themselves or others at risk in any manner may be asked to leave the ground by the officials of the club.

That said, please enjoy your day at Cowdray Park Polo Club

Everyone will be required to scan in on arrival.

Members can use their membership badges or cards.

Visitors must pre-book their entry ticket.

We would ask that you scan the NHS QR code which is displayed at the entrances.

Please do not attend if you have any of the following: -

- Covid-19 symptoms (fever, cough, loss or changed sense of smell).
- Received a positive Covid-19 test result.
- Are required to self-isolate for travel or NHS contact and trace reasons.

We will be adhering to the latest government guidelines that apply at the time of your entry.

Social Distancing.

Park a Pony Length apart from the next car.

We ask all visitors to adhere to the current social distancing guidelines.

Please scan the NHS QR code on arrival at the entrance gates.
