Polo Club Regulations

We very much hope that you will enjoy your day at Cowdray Park Polo Club, where accidents are very rare BUT polo is a dangerous sport.

Neither CPPC nor the Cowdray Estate can accept any responsibility for injuries to persons or property on this ground. The following safety rules must be observed: -

Please ensure that you always watch the movement of the ball during play and keep yourselves, friends and family out of the safety zone area, behind the white line at all times.

Please ensure you supervise your children who will not be as diligent as you.

Dogs must be always kept on a lead.

All guest access to the pony lines, lorry parking areas and agricultural machinery is strictly forbidden.

Alcohol may only be consumed by those over the age of eighteen.

Private barbecues are not allowed.

Vehicles are admitted on condition that Cowdray Park Polo Club shall not be liable for damage to any vehicle, anything in or on or about any vehicle howsoever such a loss or damage may be caused.

Anyone who is judged to be putting themselves or others at risk in any manner may be asked to leave the ground by the officials of the club.

That said, please enjoy your day at Cowdray Park Polo Club

Everyone will be required to scan in on arrival.

Members can use their membership badges or cards.

Visitors can pre-book their entry ticket.
